In this year's Lectionary we have added an alternative colour for a Saint's celebration as shown below. The coloured triangle in the example below, indicates that Red may be used as instead of Purple. In some cases when the Saint's colour is White and the Season is in White there will be no alternative.

A copy of this year's Lectionary will be available to view online and download from September:

www.churchinwales.org.uk/structure/representativebody/publications/downloads/lectionary

Also remember that all Sunday Services are available from the Word of the Lord section of the website and can also be viewed and downloaded:

CHURCH IN WALES LECTIONARY

Year

Within the Lectionary, all celebrations are shown on their correct day including those falling on a Sunday. Holy Days and Festivals in groups I and II should always be celebrated and those in group II which are displaced are normally celebrated on the next available day (but may be celebrated on any convenient day before the next Sunday).

If St David falls on Ash Wednesday it is transferred to the previous day.

Lesser Festivals and Commemorations in groups IV and V are optional and are not normally transferred.

The provision is given for all celebrations at the back section of the book (starting on page 116).

Note

On those occasions when a Holy Day or Festival from groups I or II replaces a Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings appointed for the Eucharist are the Principal Service readings, those appointed for Evening Prayer are the Second Service readings and those appointed for Morning Prayer are the Third Service Readings.

Groups I, II and III: The Eucharist and Daily Offices are of the day, normally with lectionary provision. Daily Eucharistic provision is omitted and Daily Office material may be combined on the preceding and/or following weekday. The collect used is that of the day.

Groups IV and V: The Daily Offices are of the ordinary day or season, and the collect is normally that of the week although the collect of the day may be used, especially if there is not a celebration of the Eucharist that day. At weekday celebrations of Lesser Festivals in group IV the Daily Eucharist readings are normally used but may be replaced by proper readings. At weekday celebrations of Commemorations in group V the Daily Eucharist readings are normally used.

A Patronal Festival, Feast of Title, Dedication Festival or Provincial, Diocesan, Ecumenical celebration or Harvest Thanksgiving (traditionally around the first Sunday of October) may take precedence of any Sunday or other observance in groups III - V.

Octaves are observed at the feasts of Christmas and Easter only. Easter-tide begins on Easter Eve and ends on the Day of Pentecost.

Psalms: The references to psalms in the lectionary refer to the verses as they appear in scripture rather than in any liturgical form of the Psalter.

Morning and Evening Prayer during Holy Week

The readings for Mattins and Evensong are taken from the second and third provision as appropriate.

The Collect

It should be normal to use one collect of the day, as appropriate to the lections in use. The Post Communion prayer is optional and matches the collect.

Colours

The colour scheme listed in the Lectionary is that agreed by the Bench of Bishops in June 2011 and reflects the most widespread current practise.

For major saints' day and special services e.g. confirmations, inductions, funerals etc. other appropriate colours may be worn.

Sundays and Seasons - Advent in PURPLE; Christmas Day to Candlemas (2nd February) in WHITE;

3rd February to Shrove Tuesday in GREEN;

Ash Wednesday until eve of Palm Sunday in PURPLE (although PASSION RED may be worn for Passion Sunday, PASSION RED is a dark mulberry red as distinct from the more Pentecostal red);

Palm Sunday and Holy Week in PASSION RED or PURPLE, except the Eucharist on Maundy Thursday in WHITE.

Lenten array may be worn during Lent or just in Holy Week;

Easter Day to the eve of Pentecost in WHITE;

Pentecost Sunday in RED and the Monday after Pentecost to eve of Advent Sunday in GREEN with the exception of Trinity Sunday in WHITE. (RED as option for Kingdom Season).

Christ the King in WHITE.

Holy Days

Feasts of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Joseph of Nazareth, Birth of John the Baptist, Mary Magdalene, Transfiguration, Michael and All Angels, John the Evangelist, Thanksgiving for the Holy Communion in WHITE;

Apostles and Evangelists, Holy Cross Day, Holy Innocents in RED;

All Souls' Day in PURPLE (or Black);

Lesser Festivals (IV) in RED (for Martyrs) or WHITE or the colour of the season;

Commemorations (V) normally in the colour of the season but RED (for Martyrs) or WHITE may be used if desired.
