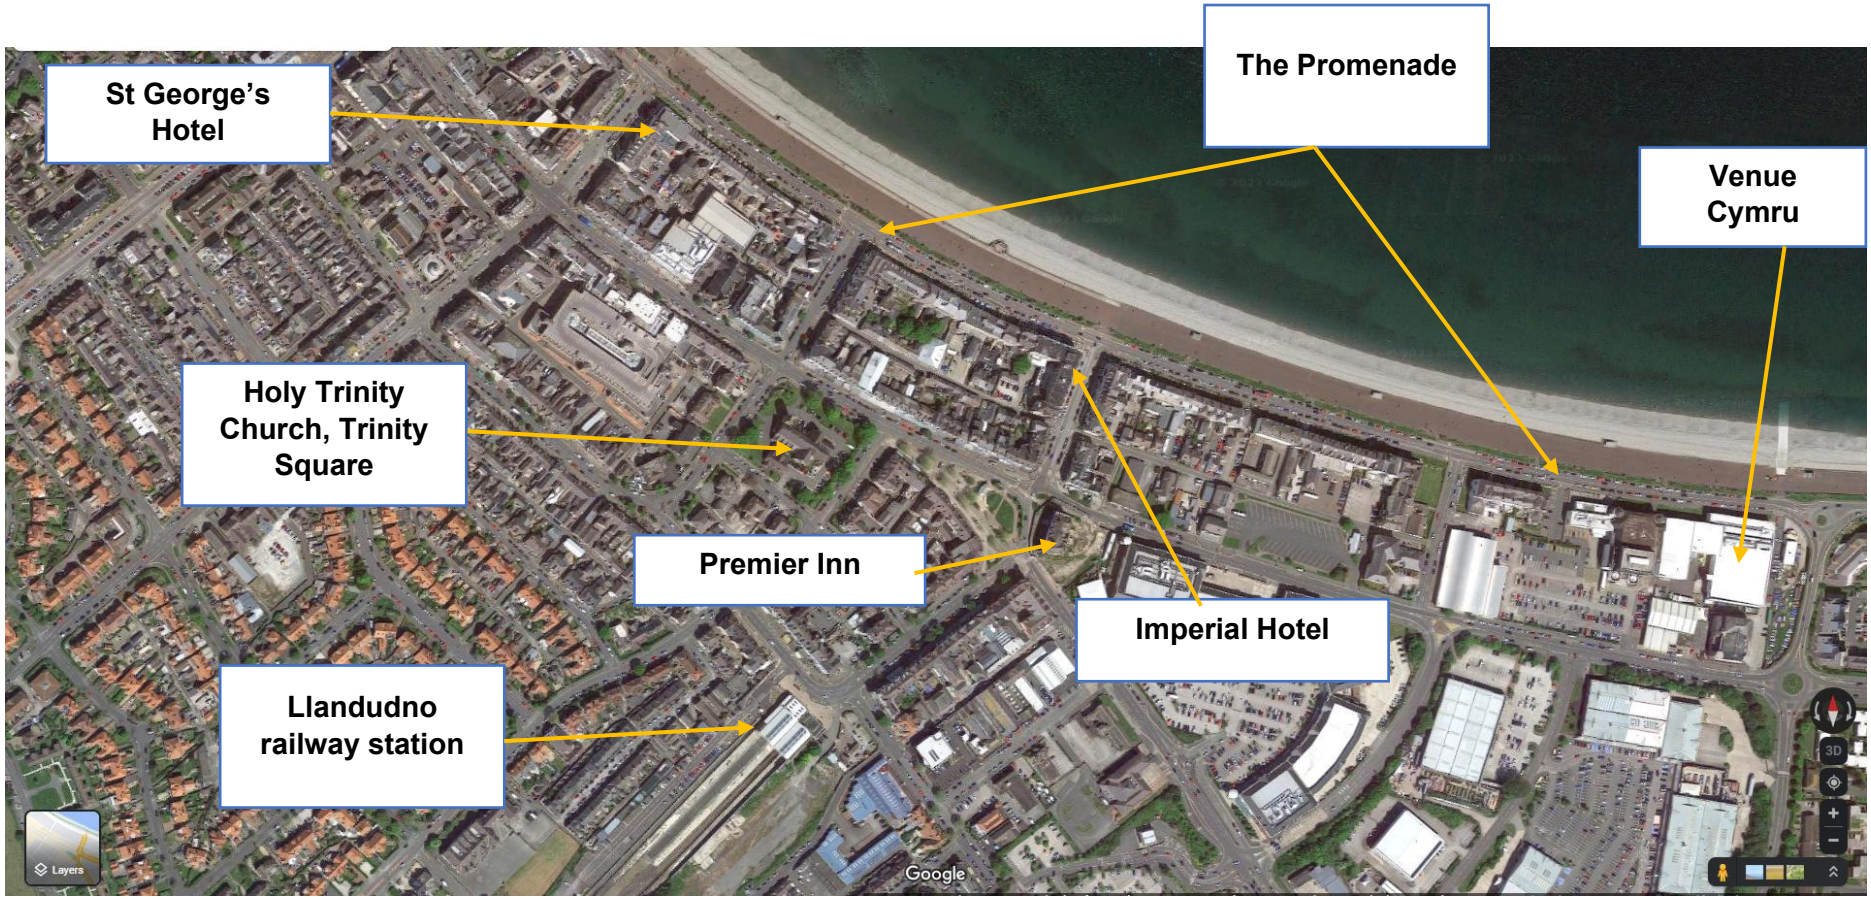
Map 1 – Governing Body locations along the Llandudno seafront westwards from Venue Cymru

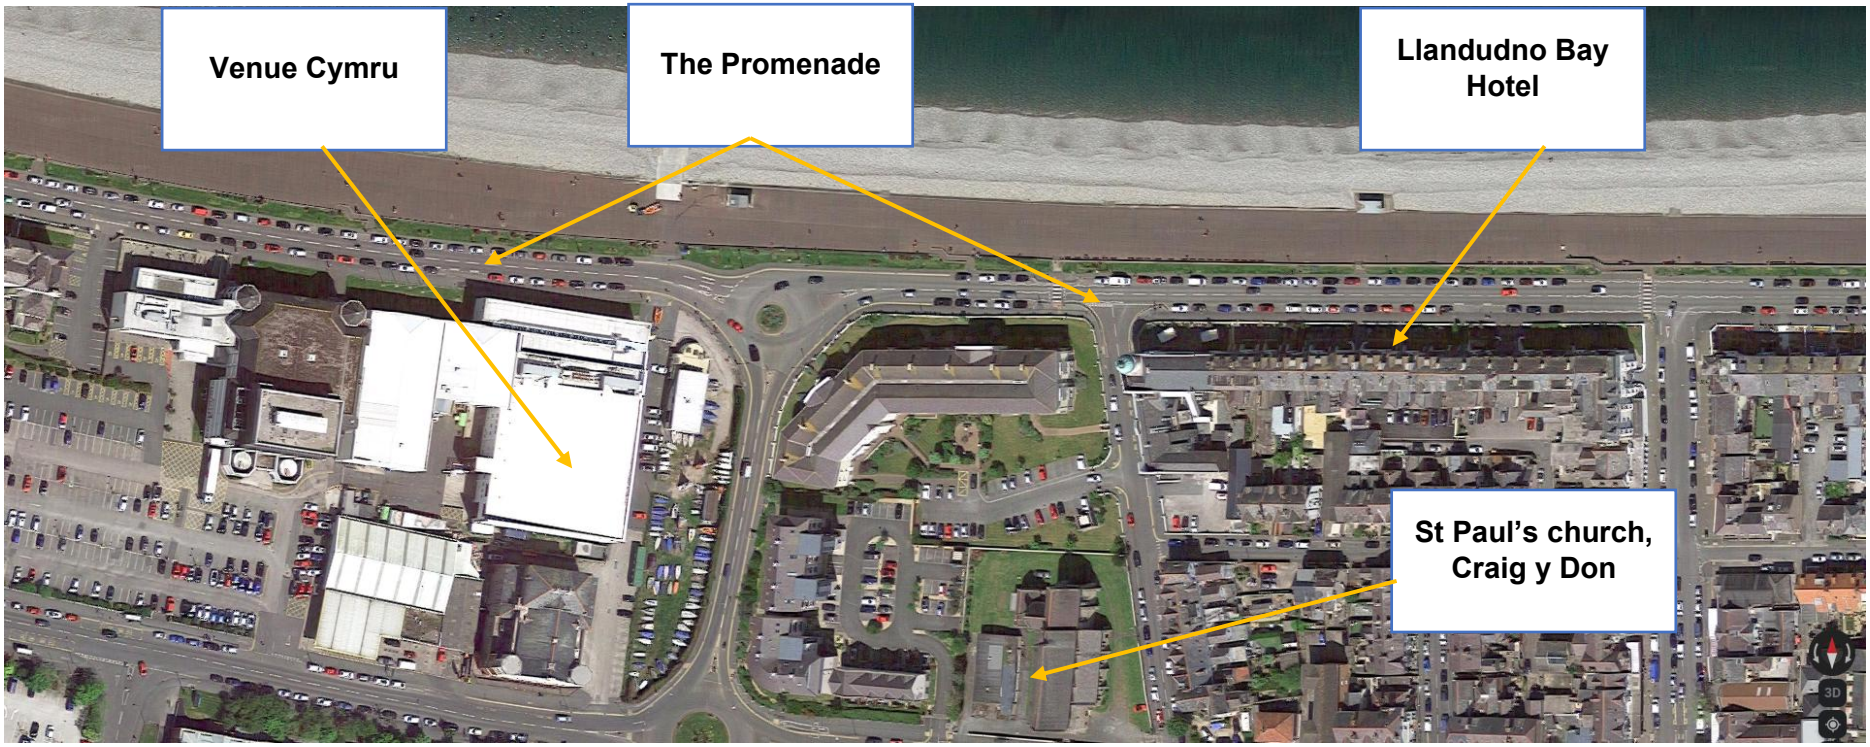


Venues information

The Governing Body will meet at Venue Cymru, which is marked on the above map. Members will be accommodated in one of three hotels: the St George's Hotel, the Llandudno Bay Hotel and the Premier Inn (Llandudno town centre, on Vaughan Street). All three hotels are located on or near the Promenade which runs along the Llandudno seafront. Approximate locations of the hotels are shown on map 1 (above) or map 2 (below).

For those who have requested it, dinner will be served at 19.15 at the Imperial Hotel on both Tuesday 14 April and Wednesday 15 April. The celebration of the Holy Eucharist (09.00 on Wednesday 15 April) will take place at Holy Trinity Church and Evening Prayer (17.45 on Wednesday 15 April) will take place at St Paul's church, indicated on map 1 and map 2 respectively. (Prayers and Bible study on the morning of 16 April will take place at Venue Cymru.)

Map 2 - Governing Body locations along the Llandudno seafront eastwards from Venue Cymru



Transport

Travel by train

Llandudno Junction railway station is on the north Wales main line and is served by services from Wrexham, Shrewsbury, Newport and Cardiff from the south; Chester, Rhyl, Bangor and other stations along the north Wales coast to the east and west, as well as from Holyhead and Blaenau Ffestiniog.

Llandudno Junction station is approximately 3 miles from Llandudno town centre; Llandudno railway station is in Llandudno town centre and within walking distance of Venue Cymru and the hotels. A regular train service (approximately every 20 minutes) operates between Llandudno Junction to Llandudno stations, with a journey time of around 10 minutes.

The location of Llandudno railway station is shown on map 1.

Travel by bus

Regular local bus services pass close to Venue Cymru and the Promenade. Details can be found online using the following link:

https://www.arrivabus.co.uk/wales/bus-travel-in-llandudno

Travel by car and parking

From junction 19 of the A55 follow signs for Llandudno and take the A470 (Royal Welsh Way). Follow the brown road signs for Venue Cymru which will lead into the town centre and to the seafront Promenade.

The St George's Hotel has a car park for residents (with electric vehicle charging facilities). It does not offer extensive parking with parking being available on a first come, first served basis to a maximum of 31 cars. The Llandudno Bay Hotel has a small car park and also offers electric vehicle charging on site. The Premier Inn has no parking facilities – there is pay and display parking on surrounding streets.

Venue Cymru has a pay and display car park to the rear of the building, with charges for various periods of time up to a £14.50 charge for 24 hours. The car park also has charging points for electric vehicles.

Information about electric vehicle charging points in Llandudno can be found here.

Parking along some sections of the Promenade is pay and display between 10.00 and 16.00 – please check information boards locally for details.

Venue postcodes

Venue Cymru - LL30 1BB

St George's Hotel - LL30 2LG

Imperial Hotel - LL30 1AP

Llandudno Bay Hotel - LL30 1BE

Premier Inn (Llandudno town centre, Vaughan Street) – LL30 1AG