Remembrance Day - Statement from the Archbishop of Wales, The Most Revd. Cherry Vann

Since Remembrance Sunday last year, the world has seen an increased level of violence. Wars and conflicts continue to rage across Africa; the full-scale invasion of Ukraine by Russia has gone on longer than the First World War; and the conflicts in the Middle East have continued and grown with the war in Iran.

For these reasons and more, Remembrance Sunday this year seems even more poignant. Prayers for peace, and our thanksgiving for all those who died in the pursuit of peace, come from a deeper place this year. We may echo the Psalmist who cries, “How long, O Lord?” But we also hear the promise that sorrows may last for a night, but joy comes in the morning. So, we watch and long and hope for the morning. As we hear the echoes of the Last Post hauntingly ringing in the air, we strain to hear the reveille that reminds us that war does not go on forever, that conflicts can cease, that peace is not an undiscovered country but one we have been to and where we are working to be again.

We remember all those who fight and who died for peace, all those whose lives have been affected and those who continue to live with trauma, and we commit ourselves again to strive for the peace and the wellbeing of all peoples.

Funding Helps Ukranian Refugees Build Community and Preserve Culture in Wales

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in." – Matthew 25:35

A donation of £8,477 from the Diocese of Monmouth has helped Ukrainian refugees across Wales strengthen community connections, celebrate their cultural heritage and support the wellbeing of families rebuilding their lives after displacement.

The funding, raised through Bishop Cherry's Lent Appeal 2022, was distributed through the Welsh Refugee Council and has supported a range of community initiatives designed to foster inclusion, wellbeing and resilience among Ukrainians living in Wales.

The donation enabled:

- Ukrainia participation in the Welsh Refugee Council's Mini World Cup football tournament, helping refugees build friendships, develop confidence and celebrate diversity through sport.
- Fifty members of the Ukrainian community to attend the Krayoviy Zdvyh Festival, providing an opportunity to reconnect with their culture, traditions and heritage.
- Creative and cultural activities for Ukrainian refugee children through the Ethno DNA project, supporting wellbeing and a sense of identity.
- Activities delivered by the Golden Time Club, promoting wellbeing, social connection and digital inclusion among older Ukrainians.
- Ongoing work to strengthen Ukraine Hub Cymru Wales, a community network providing practical and emotional support to Ukrainians across Wales.

Reflecting on the impact of the funding, Olena Campbell of Monmouthshire County Council said: “Being able to wear a proper kit in their country's colours made the team feel immensely proud.”

Olga Shatova, who attended the Krayoviy Zdvyh Festival, added: “This festival gave us the opportunity to feel that we are not alone and not forgotten.”

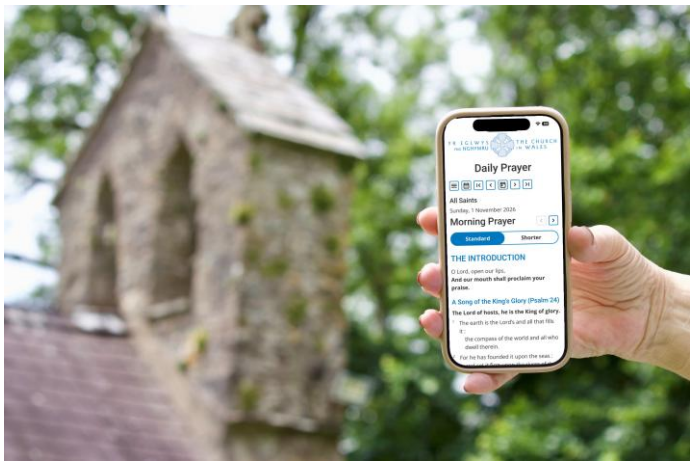

The Diocese of Monmouth has welcomed the positive impact the appeal has had on those forced to leave their homes because of conflict.

Bishop Cherry says: “God invites us to be generous with what he has given us. This is just one more example of how God is able to use and to bless what we give and what we share.

“It is inspiring to see how gifts given through Lent Appeal have helped Ukrainians find friendship, preserve their cultural identity and build new lives in Wales. We continue to hold the Ukrainian community, and all those displaced by conflict, in our prayers, and give thanks for the work of the Welsh Refugee Council.”

The project highlights the lasting difference that local generosity can make, helping displaced people not only meet practical needs but also find belonging, dignity and hope as they establish new lives in Wales.

The Church in Wales Launches Daily Prayer App

The Church in Wales's second digital app, the Daily Prayer App has been launched – another important step in making the worship resources of the Church in Wales more accessible, helping people to engage with daily prayer wherever and whenever they need it.

The app brings together two of the Church in Wales's most popular publications, Daily Prayer (2009) and Daily with God (2024), making these resources available in a convenient digital format, following the successful model of the Digital Lectionary App.

The Daily Prayer App will be released in two phases. The first, Personal Devotion, enables users to access Morning, Midday, Evening and Compline (Night) Prayer on their phone, laptop or other digital devices. Each service is presented in a clear, easy-to-use format, incorporating introductions, Bible readings, blessings, canticles, prayers, creeds and conclusions. The app is available in both Welsh and English and is free to use.

You can access the app here: apps.churchinwales.org.uk.

Both the Digital Lectionary and the new Daily Prayer App will be available from the same online location. The older version of the Digital Lectionary will be withdrawn in due course.

Coming Soon: Service Sheet Creation

The second phase of the app will introduce a Service Sheet Creation facility. This will allow users to build a service by selecting the required elements using simple, intuitive buttons. Once the selections have been made, the service text can be downloaded in Welsh, English or both languages.

A launch date for this second phase has yet to be announced, but it is expected to be available soon.

Bishop's Lent Appeal 2027 - Bible Society

Lots of people ask for details of the Bishop's Lent appeal in good time! For the 2027 appeal, we will be supporting the work of the Bible Society in the Middle East.

The reality is that politics seems to be failing so many of the people in the Bible Lands. We're praying for peace and for transformation in the places Jesus lived and those prayers are powerful.

But, in supporting the Bible Society, we can do even more than that. Generous donations to the Lent appeal enable a practical response based around God's word. In all these divided communities, you are opening the Bible and allowing it to speak hope into desperate times.

Some examples of help being given (others will follow as we approach Lent)

Trauma Healing is widely available

'People are really traumatised,' said Victor Kalisher, who leads the team in Jerusalem. 'We've started translating resources into Hebrew for the first time to guide people through a spiritual trauma healing. And together with that, we provide a Bible.'

Bible Society's Trauma Healing programme, which brings Scripture to mental health support, has changed lives around the world. Your contribution, especially right now, is bringing proven help to people suffering the emotional consequences of war. And the trauma healing resources are available across communities in the Hebrew and Arabic languages.

Palestinians are hearing God's word

Among Palestinians, Nashat Filmon is sharing a message of hope and restoration. This message is shocking in the circumstances, not only in devastated Gaza but also in the West Bank, where tens of thousands are internally displaced, many having fled refugee camps. But Nashat and his team are confident that their message of hope is God's word for the people they serve.

Nashat said: 'The principles we seek are rooted in the teachings of Jesus. Our mission is to bring these principles to life for all those affected and traumatised by this ongoing crisis.'

In addition to providing practical and emotional support, the team is sharing God's word across media in their communities. Your donations enable them to give out Bibles, open Scripture in study groups, and widely declare the message at a time when it's most needed.

The Bible is inspiring peace

Reaching Israel's Arab citizens, Dina Katanacho's team in Nazareth remains committed to using the Bible to raise a generation of peacemakers. The war has made this outreach even more crucial but also a lot more difficult. Communities in northern Israel, which is the main area of their work, suffer bombardment and evacuation.

'We're trusting in God's faithfulness amid uncertainty,' said Dina. She's encouraged to have your support as she struggles to inspire major change through engagement with the Bible. Through summer camps, anti-bullying sessions in schools, and sharing Bibles with children and adults, they're promoting Bible-based cultural change.

Give Back Friday!

'Black Friday' seems to get bigger every year. Stores are all competing for customers and it can become all about what you can get – snagging the best deal and making huge savings. But this year it can also be about generosity. Give your parishioners the opportunity to turn 'Black Friday' into 'Give Back Friday' instead! 70% of shoppers will do their Christmas shopping online this year - this shopping can turn into funding for your church!

8,000 popular online shops including eBay, Argos, John Lewis, Currys, Etsy, M&S, Boots, Waterstones and Moonpig will donate money whenever your parishioners (or their friends and family) shop with them online. To join in for 'Give Back Friday', register your church with funding website easyfundraising here: www.easyfundraising.org.uk/diocese-of-monmouth/

Safeguarding Sunday 2026 - 15th November

Churches across the UK are being encouraged to take part in Safeguarding Sunday on 15 November 2026, coinciding with Adult Safeguarding Week. This annual initiative provides an opportunity for congregations to celebrate their commitment to creating safe, welcoming environments for everyone and to reflect on safeguarding as an essential part of Christian ministry.

This year's theme, "Love Protects," is inspired by 1 Corinthians 13 and reminds us that safeguarding is, at its heart, an expression of Christian love. Rather than being viewed as an external requirement or administrative task, safeguarding is about protecting those in our care and demonstrating our commitment to the wellbeing, dignity and flourishing of every person.

To support churches in marking the day, safeguarding charity Thirtyone:eight (31:8) has developed a comprehensive range of resources. These include a planning guide that can be used to shape part or all of a worship service, together with adaptable resources suitable for a variety of local contexts. Resources are available to churches once they have registered to participate.

The Church in Wales safeguarding team is working alongside diocesan colleagues to promote the initiative throughout the Province. Information is also being shared through the Ministry Area Safeguarding Officer (MASO) network, and churches are warmly encouraged to take part as part of their wider commitment to safeguarding and care.

How to Get Involved

- Register your church for Safeguarding Sunday.
- Access worship resources and planning materials after registration.
- Learn more about the campaign and the "Love Protects" theme: About Safeguarding Sunday and here Frequently Asked Questions. For this year's Theme: Love Protects
- Incorporate safeguarding messages into worship, prayers, teaching and community life around 15 November.

Safeguarding is a responsibility shared by the whole Church. By participating in Safeguarding Sunday, churches can demonstrate that creating safe environments is not simply a compliance exercise, but a practical outworking of Christ's command to love and care for one another.

For further information and registration details, visit the Safeguarding Sunday website and explore the resources available through Thirtyone:eight.

Grants and Funding

Diocesan Growth Fund

Faith in our Future

Diocese of Monmouth
Esgobaeth Mynwy

One of the priorities of our diocesan vision, Faith in our Future, is to encourage, support and equip our Ministry Areas to grow.

To help resource that work, the Diocesan Board of Finance has established a new Diocesan Church Growth Fund.

The fund will provide grants of up to £10,000 per Ministry Area to support locally-led projects that encourage evangelism, deepen community engagement and contribute to church growth.

We are keen to support ideas that are rooted in your Ministry Area's planning and vision. We will hopefully be working with your ministry area soon on the MA Planning Tool and this will be an excellent opportunity to consider whether additional resources are required for new initiatives. Projects do not need to be large or complicated. We are looking for clear ideas, local commitment and a desire to help people encounter the Gospel and become part of flourishing Christian communities.

The application process has been designed to be simple and proportionate. We are interested in:

- What you want to do
- Why it matters
- What outcomes you hope to see
- How it fits within your Ministry Area plans
- How your Ministry Area will support the project

Applications will be considered by the Growth Fund Committee four times each year.

As part of our supportive and relational approach, the committee will arrange a conversation or visit to learn more about your proposal during the application process.

A year after receiving funding, successful projects will be invited to share their experience with the committee so that learning and good practice can benefit Ministry Areas across the diocese.

Full details and application requirements can be found here

To apply for the fund please complete this application form

We look forward to hearing your ideas and seeing how God continues to grow His Church across the Diocese of Monmouth.
